A. M.

My dear Sam.

I received yesterday came off. as follows
"Telegram of eighth rec'd. Five thousand rec'd.
Have withdrawn offer. Advertisement and sale postponed thirty days. Write you today.
Eagle." which is all very satisfactory.
I shall look for your letter on the 14th inst. - as I have been getting them in six days of late.
John is still there but is bright and cheerful
and full of confidence in success of his business.
M. Clure is here on account of Sponge Co. meeting but returns to Buckeye tomorrow and will be back here on 21st inst. to stay: his holiday completed.
Staunton's telegram that his report will be here by 15th inst. so I may get the whole into shape so that M. Clure can complete it, in time to leave here by 27th or 28th: if. I shd be needed earlier than the time indicated in mine of 8th inst.

All of the different branches of our family
are as well as usual up to latest dates.

Mr Sam. H. Cheyney
Johnsville, Cal.
